

ANCHORAGE F.O.L.K. FESTIVAL

P.O. Box 243034 • Anchorage, Alaska 99524-3034

November 4, 1991

Dear Festival Members and Friends,

Preparations are underway for the third annual Anchorage Folk Festival the last weekend in January, 1992. As with our successful first and second festivals, the upcoming festival is produced by the Anchorage Folk Festival, a not-for-profit organization run by volunteers. The purpose of the festival is to feature the broadest possible representation of community performers, to introduce and educate the public about Anchorage's folk arts opportunities, and to provide a symposium for the interchange of cultural and performance ideas.

The Anchorage Folk Festival is supported by the community and admission to the Festival is free of charge.

The previous two years' Festivals have begun a tradition of excellence not only in the on-stage performances and the workshops, but also in the level of community support and individual participation. There are many opportunities for participation in the Anchorage Folk Festival. We need volunteers with energy and enthusiasm to help with the following upcoming and ongoing tasks:

- Volunteer co-ordination
- Newsletter production
- Contact with arts organizations and clubs
- Performer and workshop contact & scheduling
- Promotion
- Program ad sales & production
- Concessions
- Membership
- Stage production
- Many other small and large tasks

How To Reach Us...

George Sleichter, President
562-5471
Rick Miller, Treasurer
243-5758

If you can help in one or more of these areas, or if you just want a say in how the Festival operates please come to our next Anchorage Folk Festival meeting, to be held Thursday, November 7, 1991, at Legal Pizza at 6:30 p.m.

And whether you can get to the meeting or not, you can make an important and significant contribution by letting others know about this letter (you can make and distribute copies if you like), and about the Festival as a whole. We value your participation and we appreciate your support. Watch for our Auction/Dance in early December.
